May 2022
3rd Sunday of Easter
Fr Norbert Fernandes

For centuries May has been the Month of Mary.

It is a time to honour her and there are many ways we can do that. But May is also the season of Easter.

During this time, one way is to pray the rosary. You could pray the rosary to reflect and think about the many mysteries of this season. For example, the Sorrowful mysteries follow Jesus' journey through Holy Week. The Glorious mysteries follow the events from Jesus' resurrection to Pentecost at the end of the Easter season and highlight the role of Mary.

If you can't come to Mass on Sunday 1st May you can text us and we will post you the Rosary leaflet

Acts 5:27–32, 40–41 Revelation 5:11–14

A Reading from the Gospel of John 21:1–19 [Short version of the reading]

Jesus appeared again to the disciples near the Sea of Tiberias. This is how it happened: Simon Peter, Thomas the Twin, Nathanael from Cana, James and John, and two other disciples were all together. Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' The others said, 'We will come with you.' They went into the boat, but all night they caught nothing. In the morning, it was getting light, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not know it was Jesus. Jesus shouted, 'Friends, have you caught anything?' They replied, 'No, nothing.' Jesus said, 'Throw the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something.' They threw the net and caught so many fish, the disciples could not pull in the net. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'That is Jesus the Lord!' Peter heard John and so he wrapped his cloak and jumped into the water. The other disciples came to the shore in the boat, pulling the net, full of fish. They were not far, only about one hundred metres from the land.

When they reached land, they saw some bread and a fire cooking some fish. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you caught.' Peter went and pulled the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty three fish altogether. So many fish, but the net did not break. Jesus said to the disciples, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was brave enough to ask 'Who are you?' They knew he was Jesus the Lord. Jesus came nearer, he took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after rising from the dead.
